

Jomark's professionals are expert at photographing products from electronics, cosmetics and jewelry to food and fashion. Utilizing our fully equipped studio, our photographers can examine your project needs to find the right backgrounds, set up, resolution and digital aftercare that you require. We also photograph individuals for executive portraits or business cards or legal cases. Artists and students come to Jomark to have us photograph or scan their art portfolios for galleries, reproduction, college or job applications. Clients typically use our photography for brochures, sales literature, catalogs, packaging, web sites, display graphics and advertising campaigns.
